GATY PALLEN SAVES PUBLIC FROM UTTER ROUT AT PALMETTO PARK.

Is Only First Choice to Score at Charleston Track in Two Days-Royal Meteor Beaten in Handicap By Despised Outsider.

Charleston, S. C., March 19.—The failure of first choices to score continued at Palmetto Park this afternoon when five of the favorites were howled over. The only choice to score in two days was Gaty Pallen, which won the closing dash handily. The worst setback that the talent experienced came with the running of the feature race, a selling handicap at one mile and twenty yards, in which Royal Meteor ruled an odds-on favorite. He was beaten by Good Day, an outsider. L. H. Adair and W. W. Clark, hoth extensively supported, were hird and fourth. Another poser for the public came in the third race when the staunchly backed Roger Gordon failed to get any part of the purse, it failure was in the main due to McTaggart's inability to keep him from running out on the stretch turn. He was leading at this point by a big margin, with victory apparently assured, but in a twinking he boiled to the outer fence and this permitted Castara, Dick's Pet and Jezali to take the places. Chenault, the medium for an extensive coup yesterday, repeated his former performance at a long price in the opening dash when he beat Malik and Peacock. The latter was favorite. Semi-quaver was the supposed "good thing" of the second race, but the best he could do was to land second to the support in the fifth and was best, but Randolph rode him badly and Toy beat him. Toy was on his best behavior this afternoon. Gaty Pallen received a good ride in the closing dash and held his opposition safe all the way.

Weather and track conditions were much improved today and there was an increase in the attendance and speculation. Gus Blume rejoined the ranks of the layers today.

Weather and track conditions were much improved today and there was an increase in the attendance and speculation. Gus Blume rejoined the Kalmetto Park enclosure this merning after being worked, the mare Elsie Herndon was struck by an engine and instantly killed. The groom who had her in charge escaped unhurt.

perarten, and the rest at various tracks.

The crown prince of Germany will not have black and white, sash and cap, for his colors this season, as previously announced. His colors will be black, with white sleeves and black cap. His Royal Highness has some steeplechasers in training, but hitherto he has only entered his horses for military races. The official registration of his colors is thought to indicate an intention of appearing as an owner in other races.

CAREER IN RACING OF LAST YEAR'S SENSATIONAL KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER

Early in the present century Edward Corrigin was haspired with the idea that he would like to try as bit of raicing in England. Being at that time in a highly prosperous state damacially, the inspiration was bit of raicing in England. Being at that time in a highly prosperous state damacially, the inspiration was bit of raicing in England. Being at that time in a highly prosperous state damacially, the inspiration was broad this article has nothing to be. But one pressult of his visit was of decided importance to the horseling to this horses, he sailed across the big water and had the experience he sought, of his racing fortunes abroad this article has nothing to be an experience of the state of th pearing as an owner in other races.

HODGE RUNS GRAND RACE

PROMINENT DERBY CANDIDATE SHOWS RARE FORM AT JUAREZ.

Makes Great Concessions of Weight to Good Opposition in Overnight Handicap and Also Overcomes Interference-A Day of Close Finishes.

El Paso, Tex., March 10.—An overnight handicap for horses three years old and over had the place of honor on the Juarcz program this afternoon. It was contested by a small, but select field, made up of Kay Spence's crack three-year-old, Hodge, which was not only making prodigious concessions of weight to all of his opponents, but was the actual top weight to all of his opponents, but was the actual top weight of the race. Seymour Veiller's consistent sprinter, Mimorioso; Ray O. Egan's candidate for berby honors, King Worth, and the five year-olds, New Haven and Bonne Chance. There was general doubt of Hodge's ability to make the weight concessions asked of him and he was rejected as the public choice in favor of Mimorioso. Hodge ran a good race and wrested the victory from King Worth in true race horse fashion, but the race could not be said to have been truly run, for the rider of Mimorioso lost one of his stirrups during the running and therefore was unable to do his mount justice. Besides there was a mixup right after the start, for which King Worth was to blame. Hodge suffered from this quite as much as any of the others and the manner in which he overcame the resulting disadvantage won for him much approbation. It is evident that he must be reekoned with in the Derby races to be decided in the east, oned with in the Derby races to be decided in the east.

The rest of the card, given over to the selling platers, also fulfilled the promise that it held out of providing good sport. The opening race, a three-quarters of a mile dash, resulted in a head victory for Baron de Kalb over Toy Boy, the favorite. The winner led all the way. The second race, which was a split of the first, produced quite as good a contest. Ferrona, a receding choice, was returned the winner, half a length in advance of Leford, an outsider.

With Sosius withdrawn from the third race, Theodorita was looked apon as having the purse at her mercy. She won it, but Anar was only a head behind her at the finish. Sir Harry set a fast pace in this race and weakened only at the very end.

pace in this race and weakened only at the very end.

Rubicon II., Panhachapi and Sidney Peters furnished closely bunched in the fifth race, the first named getting the decision by a nose. Panhachapi was the favorite and, always a forward contender, weakened right at the end after having wrested the lead from Rubicon II. in the stretch. The straggle between these two furnished one of the best contests of the day.

A band of useful selling platers was engaged in the closing dash and The Monk scored over Nannie McDee by three-quarters of a length, which was the greatest margin enjoyed by a winner throughout the day.

THOROUGHBREDS BURNED TO DEATH.

New York, March 10.—In a most disastrous fire, Siduey L. Josephthal, one of the foremost of eastern gentlemen riders and sportsmen, lost almost his entire stable of horses at Waverley, his Virginia estate, last Sunday. Mr. Josephthal had just purchased Waverley, which is close to Warrenton, Va., and he had planned a particularly busy season both in the show ring and on the various hunt courses. Nine horses were destroyed by the fire, including the thoroughbreds Malthle, a steeple-chaser of quality that was only recently purchased from Bayard Tuckerman, Jr., and Robert Lonis Stevenson, a promising two-year-old grandson of St. Simon, that was to have been raced this season.

(trained by S. H Kunz).

Went to post at 2:52. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving: second and third the same. CHENAULT, away forwardly, was rushed into the lead at once and, under a good ride, won all the way and gamely outstayed MALIK in the final drive. MALIK ran in closest pursuit throughout and seemed done in the stretch, but came again in the last eighth and outstayed PEACOCK. The latter moved up gamely in the stretch, but tired in the last sixteenth. INSPECTOR LESTRADE ran poorly and had no mishaps. MASKS AND FACES ran poorly. FAIRY GODMOTHER and PLAIN ANN also ran bad races and both can do much better.

Scratched—13973 Elsie Herndon, 98.

Overweights—Malik, 3 pounds: Peacock, 2; Fairy Godmother, 4; Plain Ann, 4; Union Jack, 2½.

same. HODGE was saved belind the pacemaker to the homestretch, then moved into a slight lead in the last eighth and outstayed KING WORTH in a resolute finish. KING WORTH crossed over from the out side to the inside rail after the start and crowded the other horses, then set a fast pace to the last eighth and held on gamely to the end. MIMORIOSO ran well, but his rider had a stirrup leather broken when KING WORTH caused the jam and could not assist him. NEW HAVEN ran gamely, but was outpaced. BONNE CHANCE ran poorly.

Overweights—King Worth, 3 pounds.

13713 FIFTH RACE—3.4 Mile, (12996—1:09%—6—115.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and up ward. Selling. Net value to winner $300; second, $75; third, $25.

Time, 23%, 47, 1:14, 1:38%. Track fast.

Winner—Blk, g, by Fatheriess—Eliza Russell (trained by J. Boland).

Went to post at 4:44. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow for all but CISKO. Won driving; second and third the same. THE MONK began slowly, but moved up into forward contention on the turn for home and, standing a stretch drive gamely, won drawing clear. NANNIE McDEE had to come around on the outside on the stretch turn and finished fast. OCEAN QUEEN was pocketed and in close quarters through the stretch. MARY EMILY forced the early pace and raced into the lead on the backstretch, but tired in the homestretch. HASSON set the early pace, but quit and did not run to his true form. FALECADA out badly. OADA quit badly. Overweights—Nannie McDee, 2 pounds; Cisko, 5
